800 years of pageantry on your doorstep

It's that time of year again (as it has been for the past 800 years) when the oldest and grandest civic procession in the world hits the streets of London – The Lord Mayor's Show.

This year's Lord Mayors Show is to be held on 11th November and the day delivers spectacle and wonder, with a huge dollop of tradition for all to witness – it's the perfect day out for all the family.

The Guild and London Capital Club, which is situated close to the start and end of the processionary route is throwing open its doors in the City as a base for freemen and their guests to enjoy fellowship and fun. We've come up with some flexible options to use the club.

Freemen and their guests may use the London Capital Club as a hub - drop your bags and coats off for the day, and if you fancy it take breakfast and/or lunch to keep you sustained throughout the day.

The formal day starts at 8.30am (but later for you and your guests if you choose) for the Lord Mayor, who sets off in a flotilla from Westminster along the Thames which will be lined with cheering crowds, he will reach Tower Bridge, which opens in salute at 9.25am. At 11am the world-famous procession will set off from Mansion House after a two minute silence. The tail of the procession will arrive back at Mansion House at 2pm after the Lord Mayor has sworn allegiance. At 5.15pm a magnificent firework display over the Thames finishes off the day. Freemen are then invited to return to the London Capital Club to enjoy refreshments in the Club Bar.

Breakfast, just a coffee, lunch, wine – the choice is yours! Freemen can call the London Capital Club home for the day. Coffee, tea and alcoholic beverages will be available all day on a pay-as-you-go basis. A buffet lunch will be available from 2-4pm to ease your weary feet and prepare you for the fireworks display.
